Success story

'Dromana gave me the opportunity to explore the subjects I wanted to do, as well as assisting me and always concerned with my wellbeing. The whole school body was happy to have me. Therefore I could really enjoy every moment of this fantastic semester abroad. My six months here were full of new, interesting and sometimes strange experiences, but I am most thankful for the friendly people who surrounded me. The host family was a stroke of luck, but also my school Dromana College.'
