

Mount Erin College

Positioned on the border of beautiful Mornington Peninsula, Mount Erin College offers a rich academic curriculum and harmonious learning environment. Year 12 academic results place Mount Erin among the best-performing government colleges within the south-eastern region. The school enjoys strong ties with nearby Monash University, where many graduating Year 12 students continue on to world class tertiary education. Mount Erin College is located just one hour from Melbourne.

Success story

Mount Erin College's first international student, Li Jun Yan, rapidly developed her English in our Accelerated English classes, and assimilated quickly with the local students here. She rapidly became very confident and capable in class, and relished the cultural experiences the College gave her the opportunity to experience. Li Jun Yan trod the path first that many will follow!
