

Williamstown High School

Established in 1914, Williamstown High School is one of Melbourne's oldest and most distinguished schools. Today's learning community reflects proudly on its past but looks firmly to the future. Senior students are well supported and achieve consistently high Victorian Certificate of Education results. Active participation in an array of engaging extra-curricular activities is also encouraged. International students are welcomed in Years 10-12. They join local students preparing for academic achievement and productive, responsible adult lives.
